Snohomish County residents have a connection with the YMCA. In 2016, the Y served 101,409 community members through its six branch locations, 54 program sites, and Big Brothers Big Sisters affiliation.

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

Nurturing the potential of every child and teen.

The Y is the largest child care provider in Snohomish County.

1,486 children took part in child care programs—providing working parents with the dependable support they need, and the consistent routine and adult relationships their child relies on for healthy development. Sixty percent of children enrolled in child care programming receive some level of financial assistance.

24,283 youth learned the importance of teamwork and commitment while gaining self-confidence in ongoing wellness activities including aquatics, youth sports, dance, and other well-being opportunities.

One in three Snohomish County youth & teens gained self-confidence and academic guidance through teen programs, including Teen Late Nights, Girls of Promise, Youth and Government, and Youth Making a Difference.

The My Achievers Program assisted 407 middle and high school students with homework support and academic goal setting through 15 program sites across the county.
